NovaKey Cryptography – Public Overview

Security Overview

NovaKey protects communication between devices using modern, peer■reviewed cryptography.

Pairing uses post■quantum secure key establishment. All messages are protected with authenticated encryption.

What NovaKey Does Not Do

• No cloud key escrow
• No storage of typed or clipboard content
• No analytics on user input

Trust Model

Trust is established locally through explicit user approval during pairing. All cryptographic material remains on user■controlled devices.